

son W. Brooks, who was a member of the Kenilworth died of the Pelham Falls, Garfield street. He was captured being born July 25, 1841 in Oxford County, Maine, where William and Lydia Brooks. He went from the academy at Portland after three years, he went to the academy at Portland where he was connected with several schools. He was a manager of the Maine, and Sons of Maine, and was connected with the Blanche Pembrey of Portland who was fifteen years ago being thrown from a car in the winter afterward, and Mrs. Nellie Corrier of this union two children a boy of eight years, the living. The funeral was held by Thomas officiating, a brother of Wm. H. Parks and Mrs. A. H. Parks.

BUCKFIELD.

remuneration of Co. F, 21th held at West Summer, Commander David Andrew, it is hoped that he on hand.

postmaster at South and son, were at his wife's, last Sunday, very hot weather.

Enoch Bishop of Candiscent of this place, were interest in his lot in cemetery, one day last and wife from Wisc and called on relatives a few days last week.

Enoch Bishop has had a nice party. E. Turner of White and son were at

W. H. C. Allen of the Lewiston Blue Stone and A. S. Melcher have lately been in town.

T. S. Brigham attended the democratic convention at Waterville, the 6th inst.

C. D. Davenport and wife of Portland are visiting Mrs. D.'s brother, Rev. Mr. Rich.

Enoch Thompson of Foxcroft, a former resident of this place, is looking up old land marks.

Dr. Batley of Portland passed through here to Summer to examine some suspected stock.

Mrs. Vose has two daughters visiting her.

A party of pleasure seekers visited Strooked Mountain, Saturday. Rev. Mr. Rich, Mr. Davenport, R. C. Thomas and E. Atwood and wives.

Thomas

his wife and two daughters, were at George E. and S. J. A. Rawson and getting along so well on South Pier was in luck, stopping over night with W. Heath. He expects the new washing machine freezer.

Mr. J. Lane and her daughter, Alice, were visiting at Alimka, were visited there, last week Mrs. Lane. They were carried away and we are glad to hear herself more than has been felt quite so much so that on our most estimable of the Paris Mfg. Co., and Boston agent at the Fair building, were in town last week visiting the various relatives of Mrs. Nicars's.

POUND.

Fred Atwood of Rumford Falls spent the Sabbath in town.

A man by the name of Holt came from the lakes, Saturday, with a speckled trout, caught in deep water, 26 inches long, 7 inches deep, weighing 10 pounds and 1 ounce.

The remains of Mrs. Arvilla Record, widow of the late George Record, passed through this place, Saturday, to North Buckfield, their former home. The funeral service was held at the school house, near the cemetery. Her age was 83 years, and the people say "she was one of the best women that ever lived."

G. D. Hutchinson of Lynn, Mass., has lately been visiting the haunts of his youth.

J. A. Rawson and wife returned, Saturday, from a visit in Massachusetts, aggressive and war of words with the young ladies. The next passers by heard the battle of words not able to state what was in either battle, vouch for the lung of the contestants.

Mr. has returned from so was called by the father.

P. S. C. R. gave a performance in Robin evening, Aug. 11, 1881, at the society.

Mr. has a new house on the wile an addition is completed.

is once more open the convenience of the

at poles are erected in village with the

Our local correspondent in your vicinity is authorized to receive subscriptions for this paper and to take money for us.

Newton Beers in St. Albans.

Newton Beers, who with his excellent company recently played St. Albans, will appear next Friday and Saturday night at the Opera House, in "Lost in London" and "Ingomar, the Barbarian." Mr. Beers carries his own special scenery which greatly enhanced the enjoyment of his performances. Of the company's appearance in St. Albans the Messenger says:

"Mr. Beers played the hero, Job Armory, with his well-known fire and bush and was loudly applauded in the mine scene where he told of Nelly's departure.

"The interest of the play was greatly enhanced by the excellent ly, so it cannot be ly, so it will be well

ly.

large party from end, consisting of city and guests from a visit to Mt. Wash-
and report a very recently purchased
to be sold at all nifty and more
advertising agent.

NY.

returned from Pal-
back at work wash-
haunted by his two Amos, making a
which has not nearly three years
one hundred and

by the company. Miss Isabelle Renard was particularly interesting as Nellie Armstrong and saved her audience to tears in the last act by her artistic acting. The performance was preceded by the clever curtain raiser Glover with Miss Renard and Mr. Preston in the cast. The amusing after piece, Cupid, closed the evening's bill as presented by the company.

"John A. Preston in his trick banjo playing and harmonica work was heartily encored and his witty sayings sent his audience home in the best of good humor."

We will send you a copy of this paper for four months for 50 cents.
Send one and two cent postage stamps. Why not try the paper for that length of time? Maybe you could afford to take it all the year.

his wheel, visiting
Harrison, Eliza,
He was on the half hour. He is Lemay's estate in bert is a carpenter
of in that capacity
a Portland.
ston has been vis-
sion.
Colo have been vis-Bethel. Among
in Minnesota, Mrs.
she had not seen

NORWAY
HIGH SCHOOL

FALL TERM begins Sept. 21, 1896

THILLS.
oon while Samuel field, he was over-
heat and was car-
an unconscious
to work in the ing as Mr. and re coming from College Preparatory Latin

9.30, they met at the pond. Their came very near, but, however no only a few dollars as they entered.

at the house last Monday evening number present was served by each. The little bouquets at two cheering is quite to the benefit of the well illuminated and the music songs by Mrs. very much encouraging the guests.

Shehan, C. G. and J. Edward and Jettie M. and Mrs. W. H.

-Scientific and English,

Requiring Four Years for completion;

also a Business Course of Two Years, in which a Business College system is used.

Students wishing to prepare for our leading Colleges and Universities, would do well to investigate the opportunities afforded at Norway.

Special Attention Given to Mathematics and Elementary Science.

An experienced Greek and Latin teacher is

The wife of Ogden
the wife of John
of VIII Quaker,
wife of Harry M.
wife of Matthew
the wife of J. H.
to the wife of Fred
to the wife of
he wife of R. S.
wife of Clement employed. Earnest, thorough work is done in class-room exercises, and personal instruction given whenever needed or desired.

The Business Course is especially designed for those who contemplate entering a Business College or intend to learn a trade. The studies in this course are conducted by the Principal, who has had a thorough business education.

A low rate of tuition is charged those students who do not reside in Norway.

ARTHUR G. WILEY, A. B., Principal.

HEINOR T. HUNT, A. B., } Assistant.
ANNIE M. RICHARDSON, J. R., }

Straw Hats!

Summer Coats and Vests, of Silk, Alpaca, Seersucker, etc.

CUT PRICES

on the above in order to get ready for Fall Goods. Some excellent bargains.

We give premiums of silvers and goldware. Elegant Hoses and you can take your choice.

F. DIMMER

[illegible]

